SONS OF CONFEDERATES.

W. M. Fayssoux Recommended for Commander in Chief. New Orleans, March 25.-The Louislana fivious of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans have decided to place the name of William McClelian Payssour before the Dallas convention for commander in chief. They have sent out a circular letter to the members of the association, strongly recommending him as the best man for the position. In 1900 he was elected commander of the Lauisian division, and during his term of office a number of new camps were added to this division. He is the son of Capitalia Collander J. Fayssour, who was an efficer under Commoders Moore of the brigot war Wharton during the Texas war for independence. Capitalia Payssour was in command of vessel in the defense of New Orleans, and later he served on the staff of tieneral Evans of South Carellus at the stegs f William McClellan Payssons before the eral Evans of South Carolina at the stegs of Vicksburg.
